What emotions come up
for you?

Income Streams

Where are you open to income stream possibilities and where are you closed?

Active & Passive Income Streams

Learn to create both with the ultimate aim to generate enough passive income to create financial freedom.

What comes up for you when you think about this?

Child Ego State

If our child consciousness or ego state is reacting, for example, we may demand that our needs get met right now by those around us. We may feel small and weak or guilty. We may be unwilling to take responsibility for the situation in which we find ourselves and become withdrawn, detached, distant, or overly insistent about our needs.

Adolescent Ego State

If the part of us that contains our adolescent energy reacts, we may sound sarcastic and feel rebellious. From this level of consciousness, we frequently act in ways that do not support our larger life vision. We may refuse to be told what to do. Sometimes we may clearly say we won't fulfill a request, or we may just passively avoid doing it. We may be unwilling to express how we truly feel about a situation and think others have control over our life.

Critical Parent Ego State

We sometimes approach life from our inner parent. This part of us can sound as though we know what is best for others, more than they know for themselves. From this ego place, we can be inflexible, hypercritical, disapproving, righteous, and judgmental with ourselves and with others. When functioning from our inner parent we also can try to defend, shield, and rescue those around us, thus becoming the overly responsible hero parent.

Adult Ego State

From our adult state, we are able to consider our options and respond effectively to a situations. We are connected to our own sources of wisdom -- our feelings, inner guidance, and intuition. We are able to take healthy responsibility, rather than too much or too little. Instead of acting out of unconscious emotional states from the past, we make choices about situations from the present moment.

Examines Underlying Feelings Associated with Money

Feminine Money Relationship Issues

Power: Suppressed/Victim/Giving-Away-Power or Claimed Your Inner Financial Power

Where have you suppressed, given away your power around money, or felt like a financial victim?

Where do you feel weak financially?

Where have you claimed your inner financial power?

Where do you need to claim more inner feminine financial power?

Blame: What do you blame money for not getting to do or be?

Judgment: Where are you judging others around money?

Where are you judging yourself around money?

Disappointment: Where are you allowing your energy to constrict in disappointment?

Guilt: Do you have any financial guilt?

Shame: Do you have any financial shame?

Are there other ways you constrict the flow of money into your life?

- Is your money faucet open or closed?
- Do you feel contracted or expanded financially?

What do you need to open your money set point further?

Water & Your Money

Take time in nature to feel, to touch, and to connect with the element of Water. Allow your awareness, to sink deeply into the water. Ask Water to share her essence on money with you. Then just wait and listen. When you receive a message, write down the message without filtering it. Thank Water for the nurturing blessings you have received and are receiving in life.
