So as we look back over our time together, we began by looking at who you are at Soul level in your Akashic record reading. This gave us a snapshot of your Soul when we started. Then we anchored in the basic teachings of this planet. These have been anchored within you through ceremony. They are now a part of your consciousness now.

When you visit a new place whether it is a home and neighborhood, a town, or a planet, there are certain things that you want to do there. You want to get a lay of the land...you want to get to know the people that live there...that were there before you. You take the time and space to get to know them. You try to learn from them so you, yourself can know how to function and be in that space, so as not to upset the balance that was there before you came. This is especially true in physical planets and experiences. Maya is the ultimate teacher in that she literally lets you see in the “outside physical world” what is going on in your inside world.

The path you have been on for the past 6-month has laid the foundation for you to become HUMAN...a Divine Human: one who knows how to manage their physical world because they have managed their inner world. This is not a one and done proposition. There will always be more dances and more adjustments to be made. But anchoring in this Wheel in ceremony has insured that you have that foundation. And now you have a tool that can gradually shift your consciousness when shift is necessary. There will be more StarMaiden dances made available to you both in this class, as well as after it is complete.

So now with a good solid foundation in the Earth energies, we move to the sky teachings and find reflections of what we have just learned from a different perspective...The Stars.

The personal astrology chart, gives us a snapshot of exactly what our soul had in mind for this lifetime. It also gives us insight into what we were up to during our previous incarnations. With that in mind, we will dive into the basics today, doing our best to remember what we have just grounded ourselves into..

I want you to remember that up to this point, all of our teachers have been EARTH TEACHERS, beings that live on this planet. That is for good reason. If we are visitors here from another dimension, it is important we learn how to live here from beings that already do. Taking your perspective of yourself at the level of your soul, and immediately connecting that essence to the Earth Mother, through ceremony in a Medicine Wheel, is a very effective way, to give you a perspective from this plane: the physical plane. We simply have to start here. This has to be our foundation. If it is not, then nothing we try to accomplish on this plane will create lasting change. We have to be IN ALIGNMENT with Her, first and foremost. I will be continually reminding you to check in with your totems and we go through this next phase to see how you can blend these energies, rather than keeping them separate

As in previous classes with me, we will utilize the tool of Shamanic Astrology to understand our chart.

I will be reminding you of your intimate crew: your inner goddess and 7 other players that comprise what we like to call your CREATION TEAM. Each of these planetary and archetypal influences play a significant role in your present lifetime and can offer insights into how to move forward in the most effective and efficient ways. Working with them can help you make sense of your life and begin to make choices that work for you. You may even begin to see the transformation that you just danced into being, mapped out in the stars.

Today we will be introducing all the players on the chart. I will be reminding you that the energies that we are working with are dynamic. They have their own energies and they blend inside of us to create something that is unique for every person. They are BIG energies. And in the configuration of this wheel they literally form the Law of Attraction. This is very different than the wheel we have been dancing on.

All of this is going to get you ready as we move from the Wheel that teaches us about the Earth to the Wheel that teaches us about the Stars. Remember, the Earth wheel is about how to live on and learn from this planet. With the foundation of knowing how the energy operates on us from the Earth's perspective, from being really grounded in that Earth process, we can layer in "how the planets impinge and influence us." Then we can work to see the big picture of our lives. Remember the planetary map gives us an idea of what we wanted to CREATE when we got here!

The Akashic Record has given us the picture of our Soul. The Divine Human Wheel has given us the perspective of the "physical field of energy we have been planted in." Now we are going to move to the map that gives us the outline of what we had planned specifically for this lifetime.
