

Virgo:

"I am Virgo, an earth sign. I create the sixth gate of awareness, through which I teach the significance of dedicated work. I understand and honor patterns, timings, rhythms, and cycles. I access the Priest/ess within me to honor the sacred in the natural world through ceremony and ritual. I am organized, practical, dependable, productive, and a hard worker with a tremendous capacity for handling the details of the earthly realm. I am dedicated to doing my sacred work by being in service to the world around me."

The sun is in Virgo generally from August 23 - September 22.

Positional Voice: Let's go over the details and make sure everything is handled, your not taking this seriously enough this is important, that is out of pattern it needs to be in place, there is work to be done.

Prosperity: Virgo's prosperity needs are to be able to do its sacred work and save for a safe retirement.

Business: These are the detail handlers with a clip board and a check list. They make good accountants, organizers, business systems specialists, or managers. These are also the priestesses and priests. Those dedicated to doing their sacred work in world. Someone with a lot of Virgo is a hard worker who could sacrifice a lot in life to do their work.

New Moon for Business: Organize any aspect of the business. Increase productivity. Strengthen systems. Tie up loose ends. Get details handled. Handle wills, taxes, and insurance. Meet with your CPA to plan the next year.
