The image shows a section of an ancient Egyptian temple wall. The wall is covered in hieroglyphs and large carved figures. A prominent figure on the right is shown in a ritualistic pose, holding a staff. Above it, smaller figures are depicted in a row. The wall is made of light-colored stone, and the scene is set against a clear blue sky. In the foreground, there are several large, circular stone blocks and some debris, suggesting an archaeological excavation site. A dark wooden structure is visible on the left side of the frame.

Journey to Memphis – The Offering

The background of the slide is a close-up, high-contrast image of flames. The colors range from deep red and orange to bright yellow and white at the tips of the tongues of fire. The flames are dynamic and swirling, creating a sense of movement and heat. A white horizontal band is positioned across the middle of the image, containing the text.
