This Moon Cycle is so In Alignment with Becomes Her Vision, The Grandmother of this Moon Cycle!

There's a New Moon on 12/19 at 7:43 pm CST (28°24' Sagittarius). This is great for new beginnings, especially in the many themes encompassed by astrology's most expansive sign. And this lunation is juiced up by eight aspects! This is also the day that 3IAtlas is closest to the earth blessing us with so many benevolent energies.

For starters, the Moon is in Sagittarius, the sign associated with expansion and good luck. It's the sign most associated with good fortune.

Any Sagittarius New Moon is great for initiating new endeavors in the areas of:

Higher education, formal or self-guided:

Foreign travel, This could mean a physical excursion. But with today's technologies, other countries and cultures can easily come to you.

A deeper understanding of life. Sagittarius rules religion, philosophy and life's meaning.

Are you living life as a quest or adventure? Sagittarius would love it if you did. And are you experiencing enough celebration, euphoria and enthusiasm? These are Sagittarius' most joyful expressions!

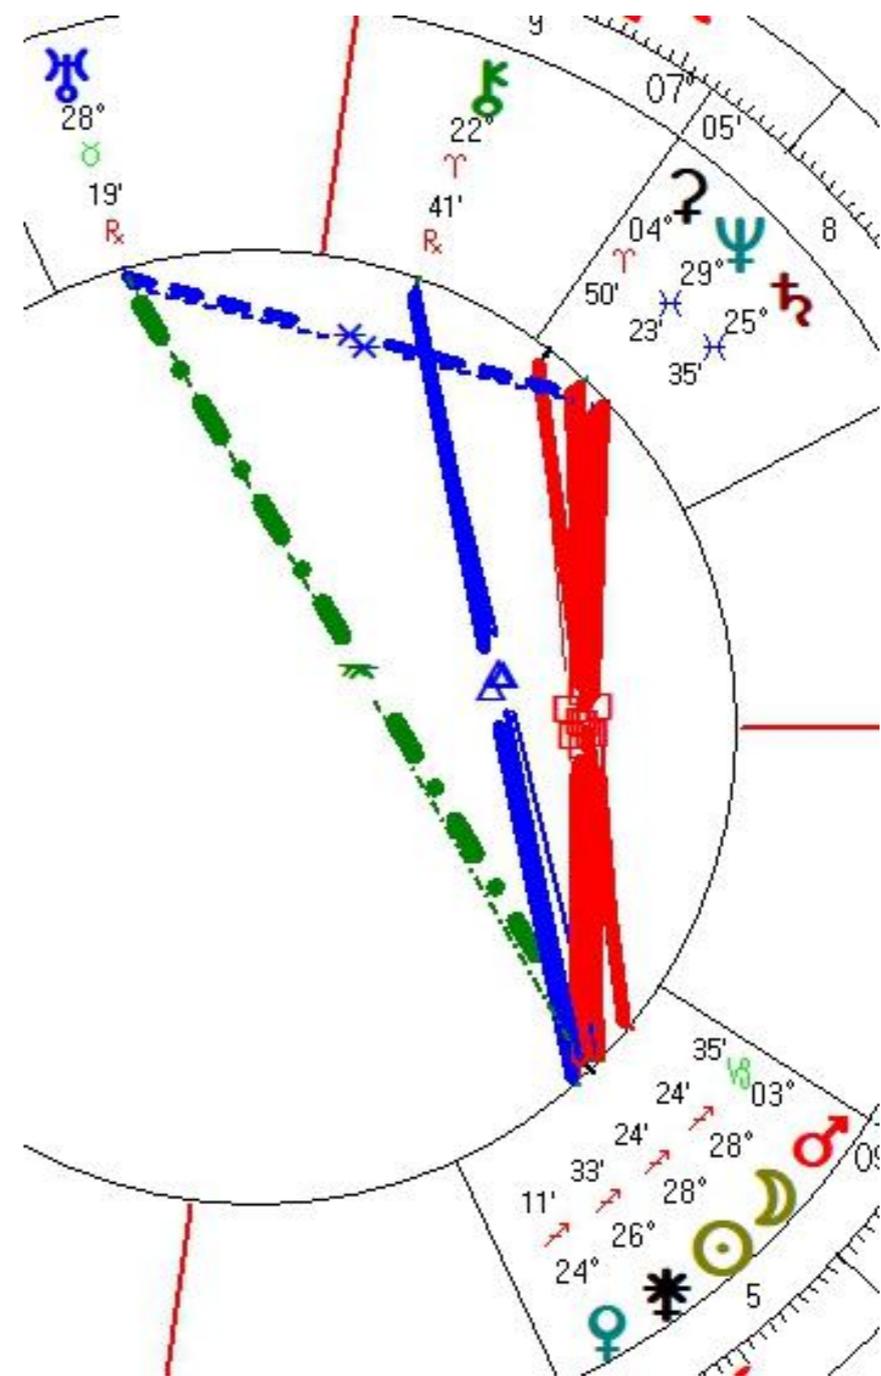

Endlessly expansive Sagittarius is the sign most likely to overdo things, so be careful not to put too many irons in the fire. Sagittarius can also believe it has the One True Way, even when it doesn't, so don't succumb to "street corner preacher syndrome."

This New Moon is giving us a preview of 2026! It includes a Grand Stellium (five planets close together) and five additional aspects – including most of the slower planets! The Sun and Moon conjoin Venus, Mars, and Juno equates to RELATIONSHIP Opportunities. The expansive energy of Sagittarius can amplify whatever's happening in your relationships. If things are great, they could get even better. Unresolved challenges could be catalyzed. This can also be a great time to make wonderful new connections!

Venus has two other foundational meanings beyond relationships. The first is creativity. Creative possibilities are further amplified by two outer planet aspects to the Grand Stellium. Uranus can pop in sudden flashes of insight, while Neptune in Pisces can pour in a waterfall of divine inspiration.

All this makes this New Moon a fabulous time to get started on new artistic projects, or put fresh energy into existing ones!

Venus also represents money, so this New Moon could bring prosperous financial opportunities. But there's a yellow flag: the Grand Stellium receives challenging aspects from Uranus, Neptune, Saturn, and Ceres. Be sure to exercise due diligence before making any significant financial commitments or investments.

MARS

Mars, the planet of new beginnings, adds additional kickstarter energy to this New Moon. He can also support your actions as a warrior, pioneer, sexual being, or entrepreneur.

Mars' placement in Capricorn offers Energizer Bunny endurance. This can help you stay on track with your New Moon projects.

CERES, SATURN, AND NEPTUNE

Ceres, Saturn, and Neptune square the New Moon. This can boost your manifestation power. Neptune rules imagination, while Saturn can ground your mental imagery into physical reality. As a bonus, the harvest bounty of the grain goddess Ceres can increase your abundance!

Saturn and Neptune also support embodied awakening. Neptune represents spiritual awakening, which Saturn can help crystallize into your daily reality. Every aspect of life is unimaginably better when you can maintain divine consciousness in your everyday human life.

A Fast-Paced Year of Change...

- The overriding energy is dynamic, forward moving, passionate and brilliant like fire itself. The energy of the Fire Horse is enhanced by Saturn and Neptune in Aries, and Jupiter's entry into Leo midway through the year.
- It is a Universal 1 year, initiating a new cycle of nine years. It is a time to begin new projects, make sweeping changes, strike out on bold new ventures while carefully considering the outcomes. The power of your will and intention will be important for the forward momentum that you maintain.
- Saturn and Neptune re-enter Aries, ready to stay the course in this sign. This brings added fire energy to this fire element year which is all about forward movement and rising to new challenges

The Chinese Year of the Fire Horse begins on February 17, 2026. The horse brings qualities of strength, perseverance, freedom, dynamism and indomitable spirit. When it combines its energies with the element of fire, these qualities are increased. This is a year to take the reins with discipline and authority.

• The qualities of the Fire Horse:

- Strength and speed
- Determination and endurance
- Passion and brilliance
- Magnificence and nobility
- Leadership and innovation

This energy needs to be carefully harnessed and controlled. It is the archetypal Wild Horse/Crazy Horse energy, that can work powerfully in your favor or backfire into chaos when not properly managed.

The More you take time to prepare and get clear on your vision, the more stable you will be as you learn to ride this wild incoming firecracker energy. This is not a year to improvise.

It's a year to be structurally ready.

Center

We are full-on in the Aquarian Age...24 years in.

The Sun is currently in Sagittarius moving into Capricorn tomorrow.

It is past time for a Radical
Revolution on this planet.

It is time to plan for the next 7 generations!

A lush, magical forest scene. In the foreground, a stream flows through a dense thicket of moss and vibrant, glowing mushrooms in shades of pink, purple, and blue. Large, gnarled tree trunks frame the scene on both sides. The background is filled with tall, slender trees and a soft, ethereal light filtering through the canopy, creating a dreamlike atmosphere.

Your life was meant to be ENCHANTED ...

I believe living ENCHANTED, means following directives from your soul...

AND THAT *THIS IS OUR PATH
FORWARD...*THE ONLY WAY OUT OF OUR DIFFICULTIES ON THIS PLANET..

When we are in alignment and coherence with what we came here to do, we are supported.

To me it only makes sense that if you are going to plan for the future, you need to check in with the part of you that knows.

The part that has traveled with you

All this time, that knows your history,

Your past, your future, all your dimensional selves...

I think with all our ego's good navigational skills with astrology, it still might be wise of us to check in...you know? Might make sense to see if she (or he) might have some guidance for us.

How do you find your soul?

Through your heart, of course...It is where we have access to FIRST DIMENSION which is OUR SOUL!

Why? Because ... that original cell...the one that was the first on the scene when you arrived here on the planet...is still alive and well inside your heart, literally. Because the heart is one of the few organs that doesn't regenerate. And because it is the place where life begins, that seed of God Source, that spark of the Divine is still happily alive and well inside of you. And most of the same physical cells that welcomed your soul to the planet are all still there! Your Spark, your seed of your soul is residing in you right now. You can feel it!

So we are going to do that again!

Take a moment...

Close your eyes...

Put your hand on your heart...

Sink in...

Ask to feel your soul...

Ask your heart to take you there
to connect with that original cell.

What does it feel like?

Go deep...This is where your soul...the part of you that REALLY knows, lives. (Meditation)

Breathe into that for a bit...

Go beyond the noise and into the stillness...

What does your soul want you to know?

....about love...what does your soul love?

What flavor of love did your soul
come to bring to this planet?

Ask your soul to show you...

A large, bright orange and yellow fireball or explosion is the central focus, set against a dark blue background. The fireball has a textured, almost crystalline appearance with internal patterns. White, particle-like trails radiate from the fireball, creating a sense of motion and energy. The overall composition is dynamic and visually striking.

So now we are in...

Align Your Personal Medicine with What the World Needs ~ What you came to Bring*

As we move more deeply into the Aquarian Age, more and more light is going to hit the planet.

This is for our benefit. It is designed to HELP us. We need to open to receive more and structure our bodies to do that.

This shift means the structures and foundations of our lives are changing from Earth elements over to AIR elements, and this energy will last for the next 2000 years!

We are seeing the break-up of the restrictive energy we've been dealt with since 2020 and all the way until now.

This shift is historic, as it moves humanity into a revolutionary energy, which we are continuing to see play out.

Time for BIG Out of the Box Thinking!

The more light we can hold, the easier moving into the future will be!
