WATER IN PERU

7

CLEAR,
CLEAN, &
CURRENT

Water's developmental task involves learning to run clear, clean, emotional current.

8

Clear

As a priestess learn to clear old emotional patterns and programs

So you can become "current & clean"

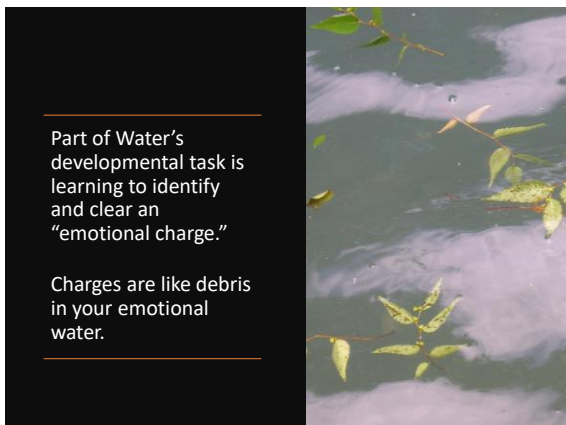

9

Water teaches you to respond to situations and life instead of react.

Sometimes a reaction can be unconscious because the energy was it was simply the family emotional pattern.

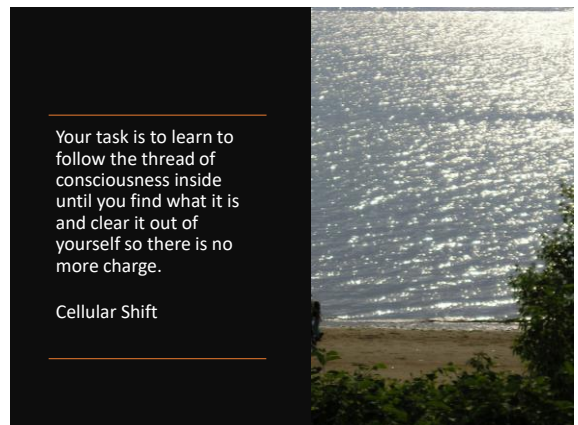

10

Part of Water's developmental task is learning to identify and clear an "emotional charge."

Charges are like debris in your emotional water.

11

Your task is to learn to follow the thread of consciousness inside until you find what it is and clear it out of yourself so there is no more charge.

Cellular Shift

12

Clearing charges frequently takes time, as often there are layers.

Your job is to just begin noticing where you have one and begin developing the ability to clear them.

13

4 Faces of Fear

- Flee
- Fight
- Freeze
- Faint

How this impacts your creation energy.

14

15

PRIEST/ESS ABILITY TO HOLD SPACE AND CREATE SAFE EMOTIONAL SPACE

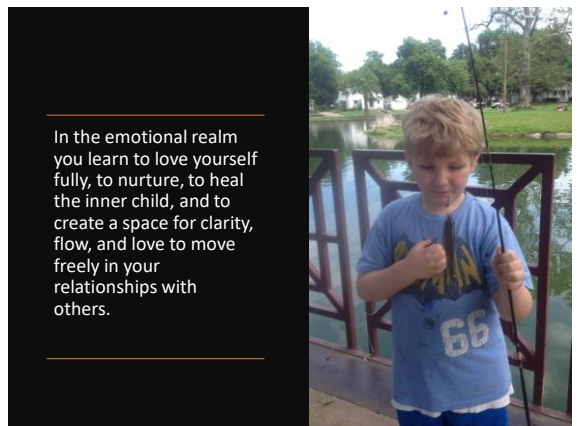

16

The power of love exists in the element of Water.

The clearer your emotions, the more space there is for love to move in your life.

17

In the emotional realm you learn to love yourself fully, to nurture, to heal the inner child, and to create a space for clarity, flow, and love to move freely in your relationships with others.

18

Increasing self-love begins to reflect in your outer world. Find ways to appreciate and fill yourself with love.

It is helpful to make conscious choices to love yourself no matter how else you are feeling.

19

Magnetic Ability of Water

Feel, move, and clear emotions without wallowing in the them.

20

Activate Water's Primary Power as a Priestess

- Primary Power of Love as a Force
- Connect to the flow of love as a force in your body.
- Ask if that flow of love has anything to tell you, if so write it down.

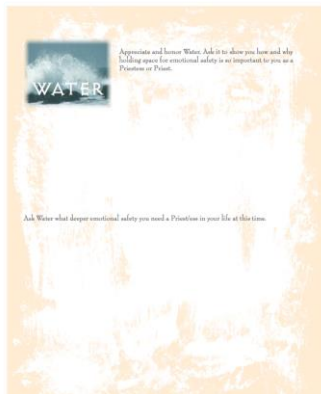

21

Move

Stand up and move to integrate the energy & dance with Water.

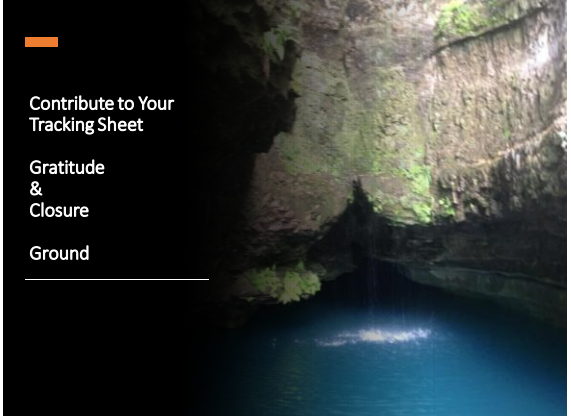

22

Appreciate and honor Water. Ask it to show you how and why it's long been for emotional safety is so important to you as a Priestess or Priest.

Ask Water what deeper emotional safety you need a Priestess in your life at this time.
