As we have been learning throughout the modules we have had so far, “the Medicine Wheel represents the circle of all life. When you sit in the wheel and evoke the sacred, all life comes to sit in council. The human, only one member of the web of life, can use the ceremony of the wheel to restore contact with all the relations of life. The animal relations, plant relations, stone people, spirit relations, all things come to sit in council. Our connections with the world are thus restored and the healing of the Earth begins anew. The wheel of life, the medicine wheel, is a map for everything in the universe, a blueprint of the web of life. As Black Elk said, this wheel exists in all things. Within each of us, too, the Medicine Wheel exists as our inner council.”

-Sacred Plant Medicine by Stephen Buhner

So, to use this technology can awaken archetypal knowing deep within the psyche. It plugs you into your divine purpose that is embedded in your DNA. It turns the key in the lock that puts you in touch with your own guidance in a profound way. It resets the clock.

If you lived in an indigenous culture, you would be exposed to this information from the time you were a young child. The exposure would not have been as “informational” as it is for you in this class but would have come from time spent in the wheel, literally LIVING in the Wheel. That is the beauty of this process. The more time you spend in the wheel, the more it informs you.

So if you have noticed some movement, or maybe uncomfortableness, it's because the Wheel is waking up your real self, your true self, not your programmed one.

So before we move forward any further, we want to pause and remind ourselves of who we really are at soul level. We looked at this in your Akashic record reading.

We have had our records read, and all of us have hopefully cleared ourselves of anything that has been blocking us.

Now we want to remind ourselves of who we are at that level and do a little check-in with ourselves.

As we move forward this will give us clarity as to how we can move forward and utilized the wisdom embedded in the wheel to our best advantage.

Experiencing your Divinity while you are in a physical body is why you came to this planet.

You came here for your soul to have a physical experience and within that experience, you wanted to experience your Divine Self. However, coming into a physical body can cause us to forget who we are, how we function, and what makes us happy. Imprinting from all of the adults in our world that have never ever had any contact with the Medicine Wheel can lead us down paths that cause us much pain and suffering.

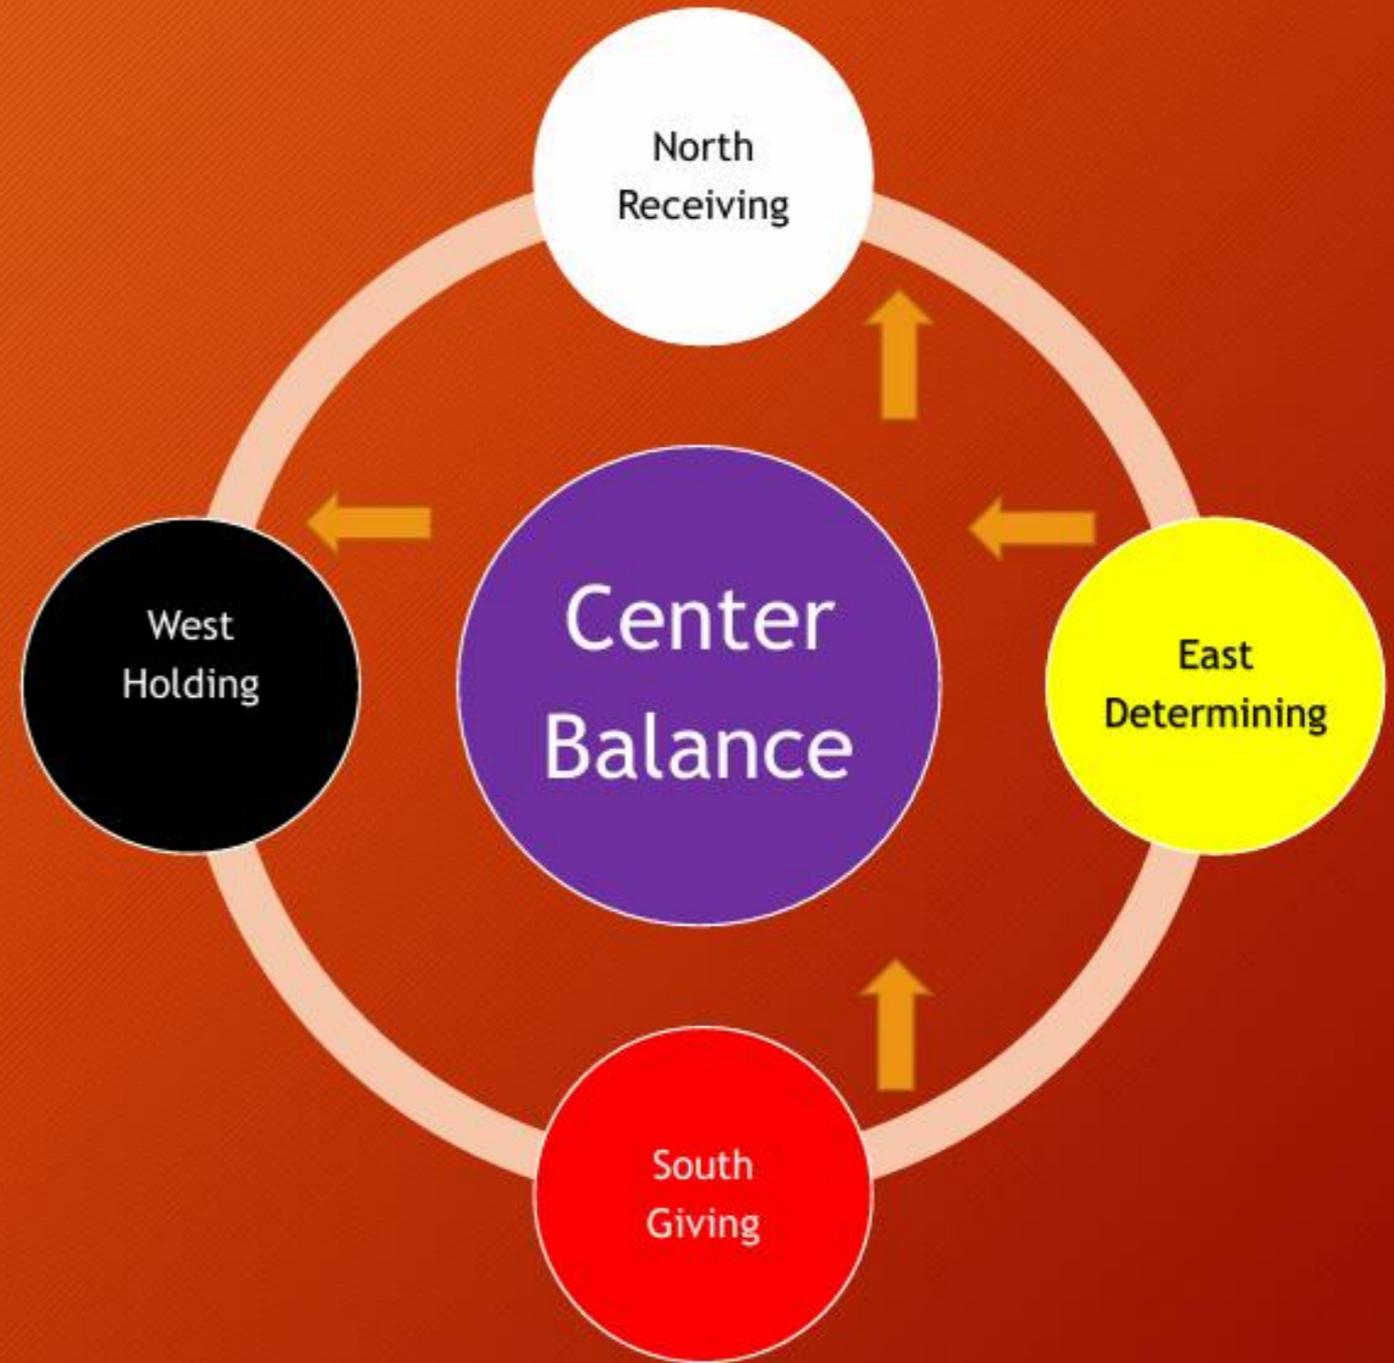

One of our goals in this course is to redirect ourselves back to who we truly are and allow the Wheel to guide us on our path as we make our journey around the Sun.

Please know that the information you received, though accurate, is not the end-all of information. During your stay here, you have evolved and grown, and have acquired certain tastes, likes and dislikes along the way. We want to utilize the Akashic information with wisdom, while we access our own intuitive knowing. So, if there are things that don't "feel like you," while I encourage you to be open to the information, don't go against your intuitive guidance if it just doesn't feel right.

Once we have reviewed the information, we will allow the Wheel to begin to direct our True Self along our Path with Heart.

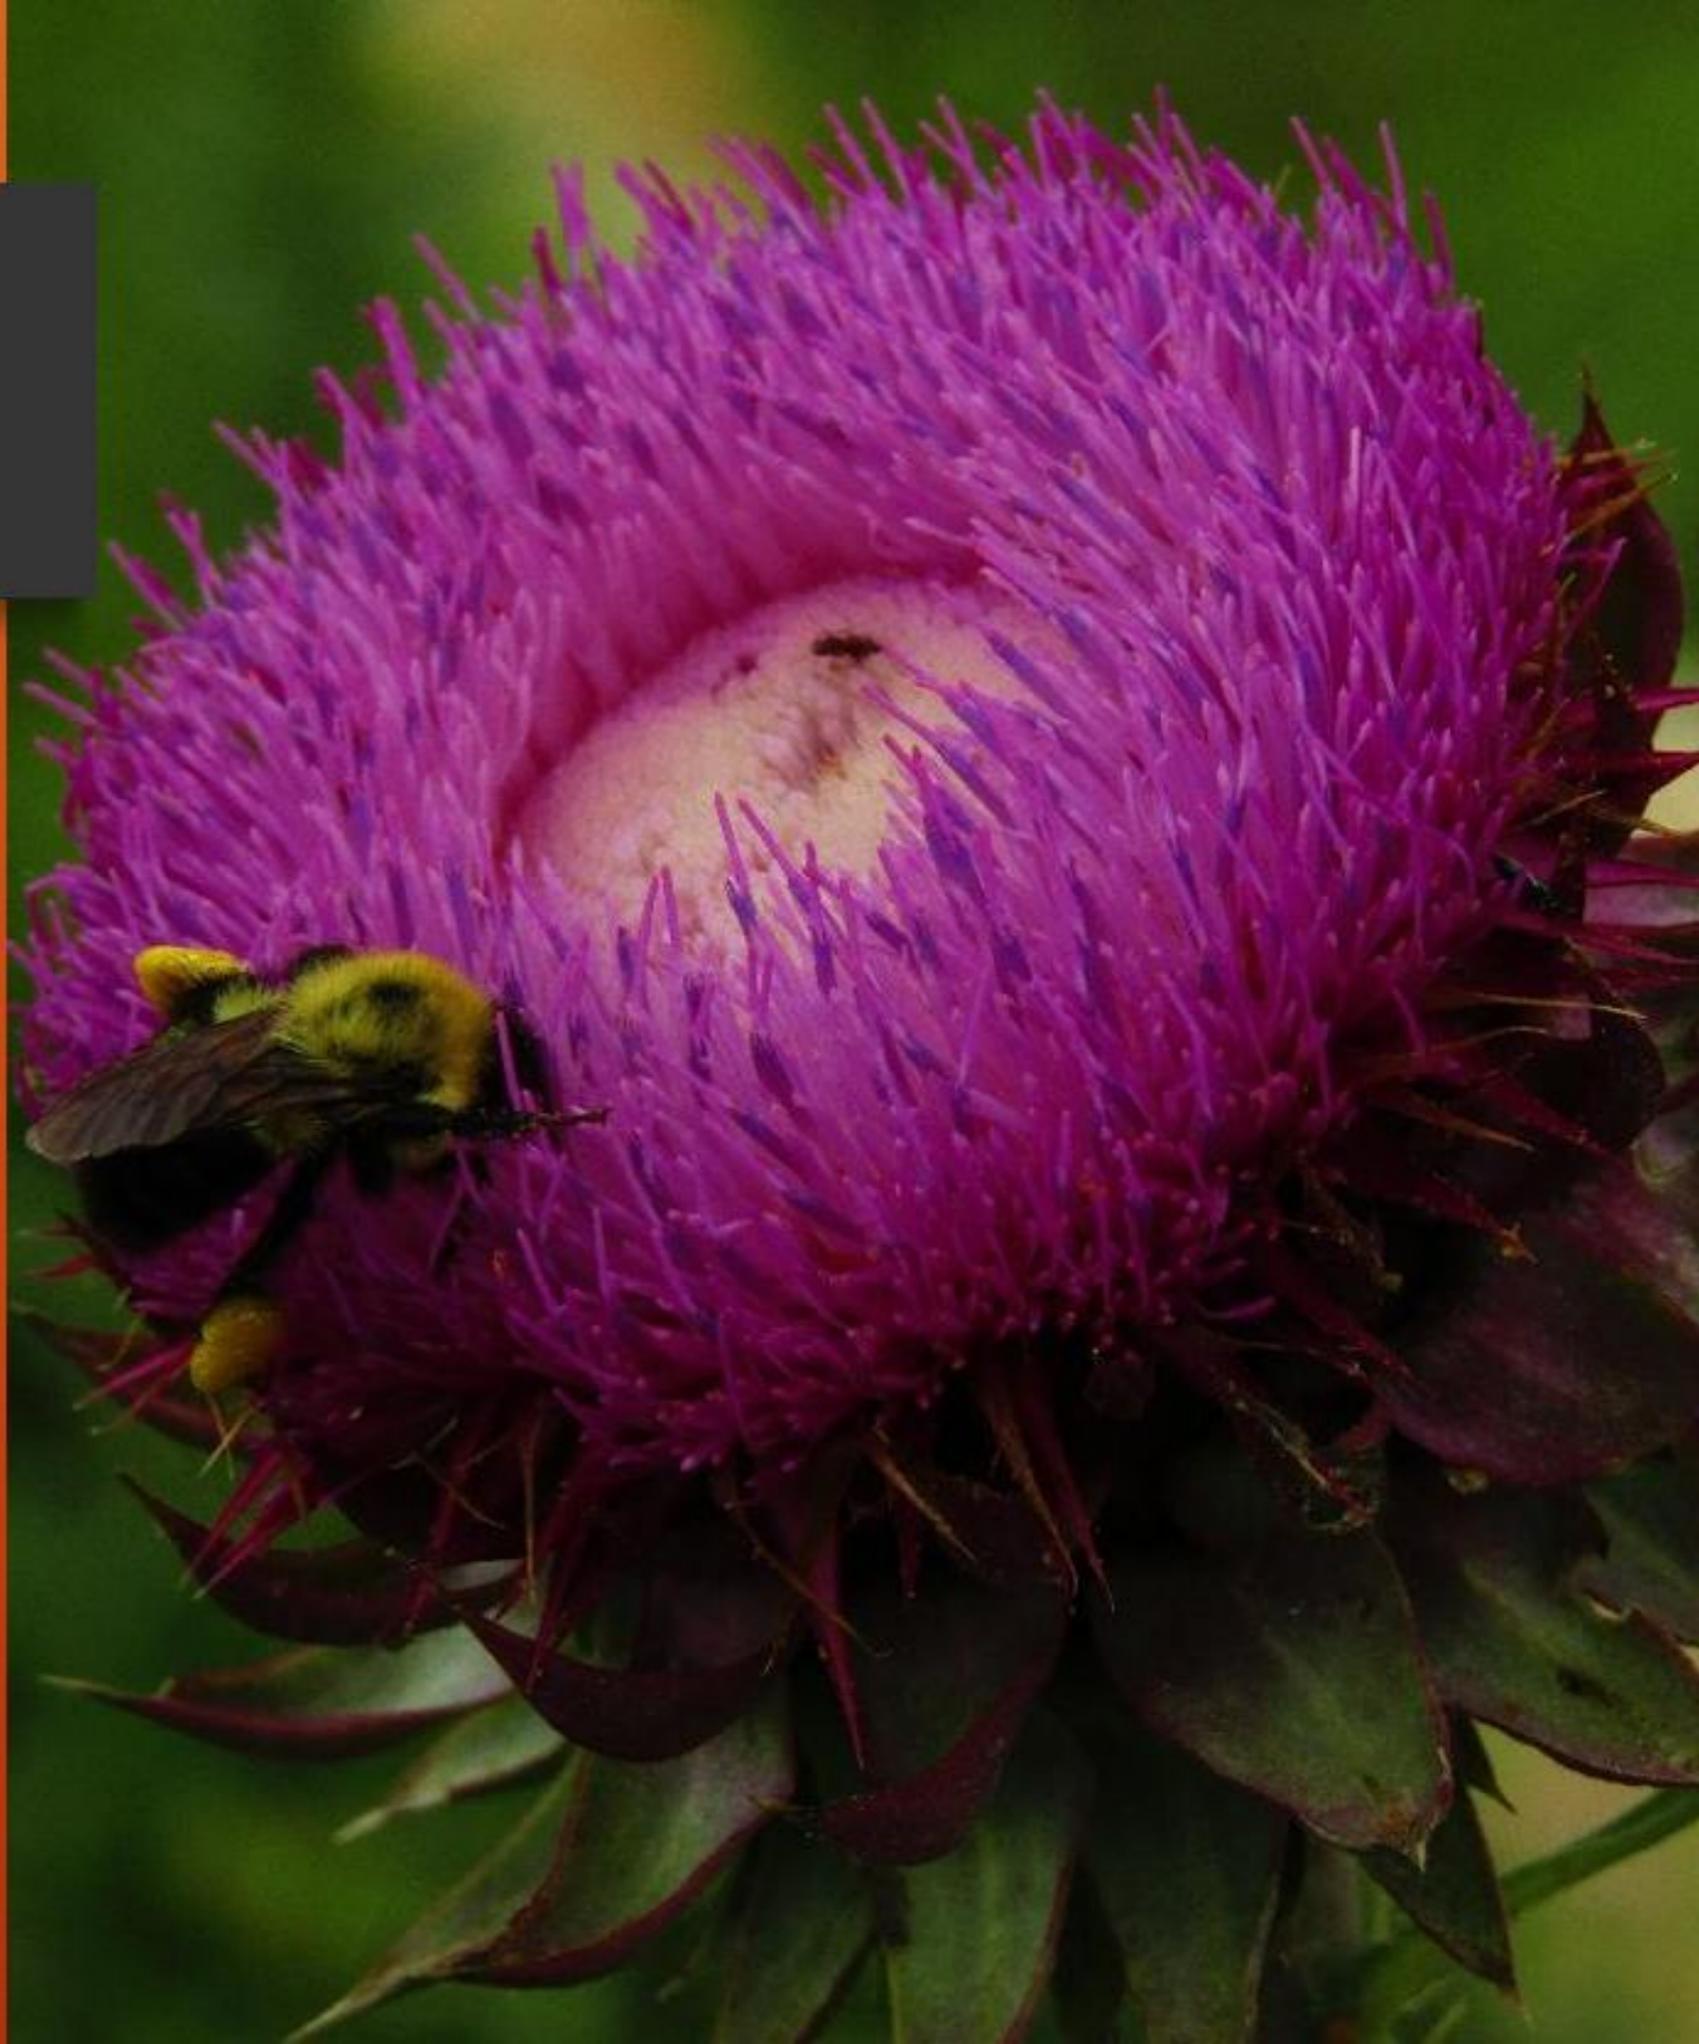

With this in mind, considering what you know about yourself as you have begun this journey, along with any readings you received from me up to this point, answer the following questions as thoughtfully as you can. Record your answers in your journal.

- What are some of the things you absolutely need to be doing, being or having in order for you to fully experience your divinity?
- What are some of the pitfalls you need to watch for?
- What are the negative aspects of your energy centers and where your soul originated?
- What do you need to be especially careful or mindful of?
- Do you feel like you are living and expressing your Divinity in all areas of your life? What are the ones you think you have mastered and where do you think you need to focus your attention?
- If you could give yourself a percentage score as to how closely you are expressing your Divinity, what would it be?

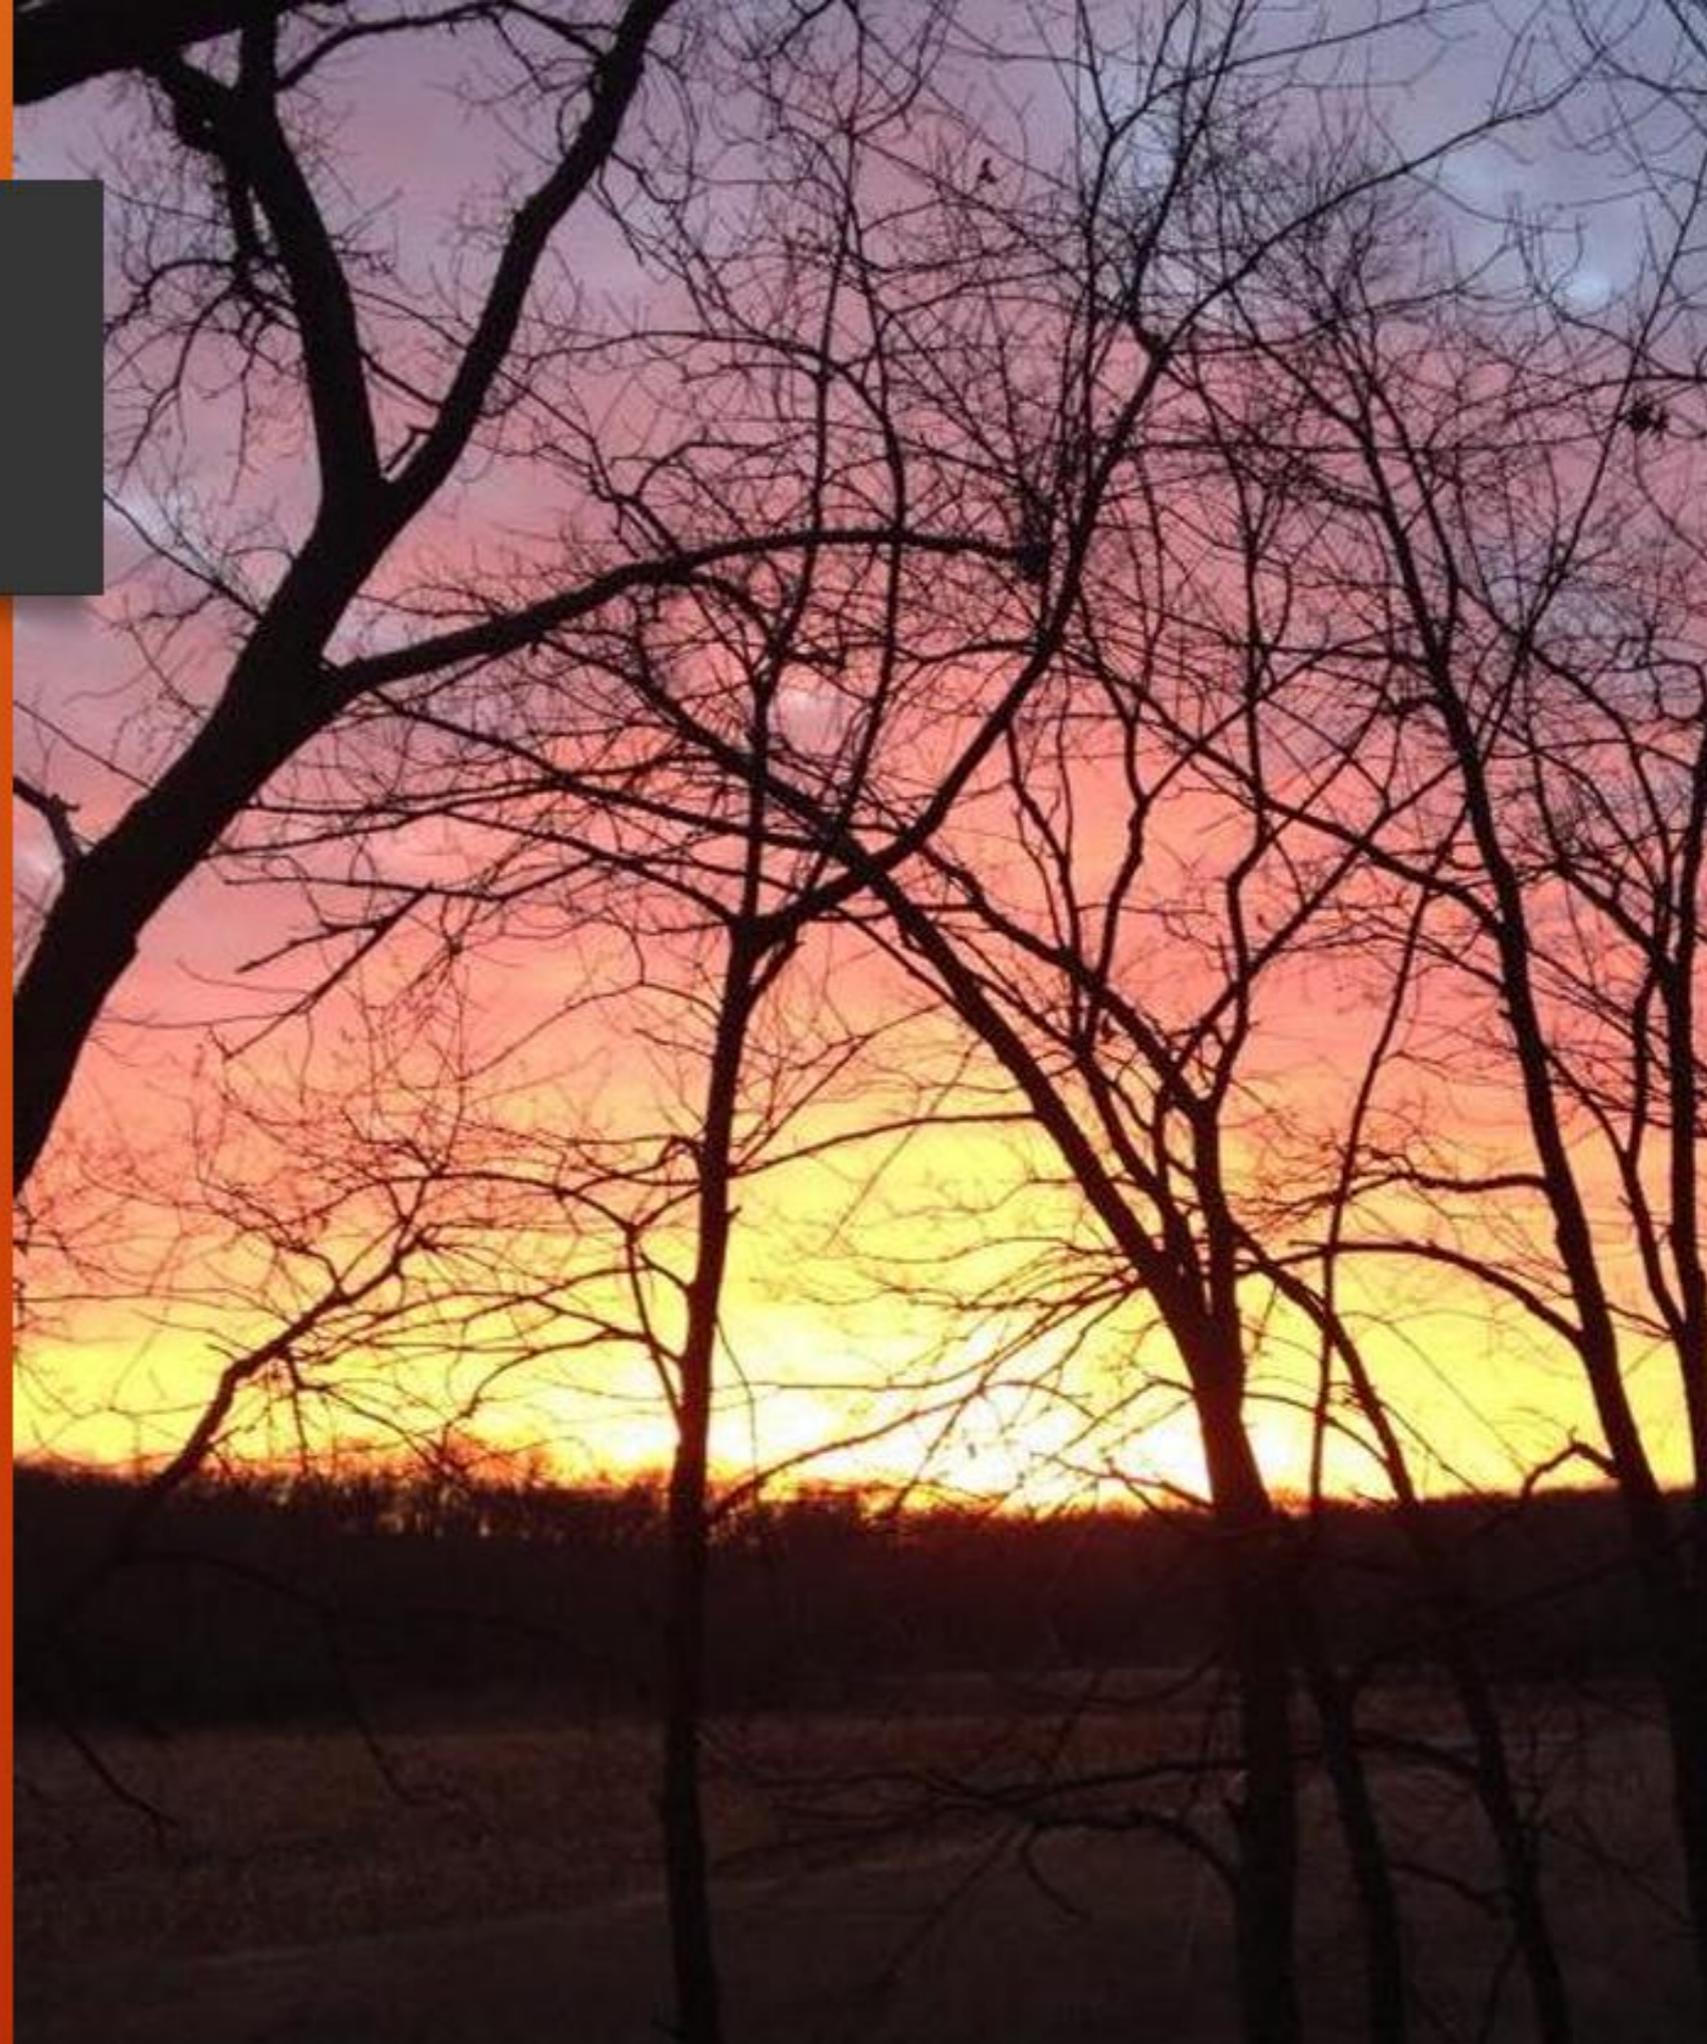

What are some of the things you absolutely need to be doing, being or having in order for you to fully experience your divinity?

NOT FROM YOUR EGO, FROM YOUR SOUL!

What are some of the pitfalls you need to watch for?

What are the negative aspects of your energy centers and where your soul originated?

What do you need to be especially careful and or mindful of?

Do you feel like you are living and expressing your Divinity in all areas of your life? What are the ones you think you have mastered and where do you think you need to focus your attention?

If you could give yourself a percentage score as to how closely you are expressing your Divinity what would it be?

Let this information percolate. More information will reveal itself as time goes on.

Our goal is to always keep an eye on how closely we are actually moving toward living our divinity.
