Archetype of the High Priestess

Martha

The archetype of the high priestess is one of a woman who holds the vibration of her own divinity consistently. She is intimately connected to her own soul, open to her intuition. She has moved beyond the realm of reason and relies on her sense of inner guidance. She is self-sovereign. She is a conduit to bring higher vibrational energies into manifestation in our 3-D, shared reality. She can travel the inner-dimensional worlds, but knows her home as earth and that the purpose of her travels is to return home with gifts for her community. She is a priestess who has taken the next step to clear more so she can hold more.

The high priestess is the same as a priestess, only more consistent, more confident, more powerful and more effective. She holds the higher vibration of the priestess all the time. It is anchored and grounded within her very being.

I like the way she is pictured in Crowley's Tarot. The upper part of her body is in the inner-dimensional realms and the lower part is in the earth realm.

Dana

a high priestess lives her life in the energy of the divine flow... her heart is open, her compassion unending, her patience, natural... her task is to help show the way through the example of her own life... she knows there is no right or wrong way, just each person's own way, there is no one truth, just each person's truth, and she trusts each one's higher guides to guide them... she trusts the process inately, she sees the beauty of the mystery, and she helps others to find their own truths and their own source of power...

as she begins to deepen, she realize the responsibility she has accepted, as she is working with the collective energy field... as she heals herself, she heals others... she realizes that she must be responsible for her very words, thoughts and feelings, because she will manifest this in her own life... she soon realizes that as she begins to vibrate more highly, manifestation begins to happen more and more quickly... and she senses the responsibility she has to both herself and others to be consciously aware at all times of what she is creating... humbly, she knows that she is but a conduit for the energy of the divine to move through, and she dedicates her life in service of this cause... her very being is the meaning of "as above so below... as within, so without, as the universe, so the soul"... she is creating heaven on earth... ho!

she learns to hold a vision of love, beauty and truth regardless of the circumstances around her, as she taps into a greater reality... she understands the beauty of the plan, while at the same time, being ok with not knowing... her trust and faith are what pull her through difficulty time and time again... in fact, difficulty is understood on a deeper level as a gift... as an opportunity for growth, and another insight into knowing herself... as she knows herself, she knows God/dess...

she begins to understand projection on a deeper and deeper level, knowing that what she sees in others that she does not like is only a reflection of something inside herself to clear... buttons pushed are indicators... judgments are reflections of rejected parts of herself... and she embraces duality as the gift that it is... a school for the development of the eternal soul...

she knows that one day, we will all understand, we will all smile, and we will all vibrate the highest degree of love...

she is returning to the essence of love deep inside herself, and there is nothing that will stand in her way... nothing... there is nothing that could...

Doing this work puts us in direct contact with the Soul of the World...the Divine Sophia.

Another version of Her Story – She was a big Creator Spirit, an Aeon. These are great spiritual forces, emanating directly from Source, that live in the Pleroma, deep in the black hole, the heart of our Galaxy.

She emerged from the Pleroma as a river of light who expanded out into the 2 arms of chaos of the galaxy. From there she dreamed the dream of the Anthropos – divine humans, and she fell in love with her dream. So, she left the safety of the Pleroma and expanded herself out into the galaxy and solidified herself into this planet. This planet is her physical body, and her spirit is the organic white light which we can communicate with.

Connecting with Her in this way actually activates codes in our DNA that have become dormant from lack of use. By coming into contact with Her on a regular basis we establish communication with Her and these pathways are re-activated. It heals us and it heals Her.

The logo for 'Source Light' features the words in a white, elegant script font. Behind the text is a complex geometric design known as a Sri Yantra, composed of nine interlocking circles. The background of the entire image is a cosmic scene with a dark blue and black space filled with stars, nebulae, and glowing golden and blue energy lines that swirl around the central design.

how to work with it

Pay Attention

Know that anything that arises in your life or business can be a clue to an energetic pattern
impacting you

Allow yourself to look at everything

Let me know if you do not have one of these! I'll send you one. I'll send a Sacred Rhythms Packet to everyone who has one already or you can request another one.

Source Light High Priestess Suggested Guidelines & Tools

Creating Sacred Space for Each Call

If you are utilizing the on-line feature of this program, there are a couple things you can do to support your experience before each call or listening to the replay.

- 1) If possible, find a quiet place to listen to the call free from distractions.
- 2) Have some paper handy or your journal for the Process.
- 3) Create sacred space and/or a little altar by placing some fresh flowers or even some lovely leaves or a potted plant near you. Having a bowl and/or glass of water nearby. Light a candle if
